Sweden, October 27.

COUNT Cronstedt is made President of the Chamber of Revision, in the room of the late M. Vult-von Steyeren.

Copenhagen, October 31. An Ordinance has just been published by which an additional Duty is laid upon all imported Leathers, except those of Russia. The Duties now are 2 Rix-Dollars 40 Schillings upon each Degger consisting of ten Skins, and one Rix-Dollar and an half on each dressed Skin.

Hague, November 10. Yesterday Noon the Prince and Princess of Orange made their publick Entry into this Town. The Procession was very magnificent, and in great Order, notwithstanding the prodigious Affluence of People, which had crowded from all Parts of this Country to see it. The Magistrates of the Hague received and complimented their Highnesses under a triumphal Arch, erected at the Side they came into Town by. The Burghers were under Arms, as was likewise the Garrison; and the Prince of Weillbourg and Prince Lewis of Brunswick marched in the Train at the Head of their respective Squadrons of Guards. The Artillery was fired at the same Time from the Ramparts; the Bells rung; and the Stadtholder, with his Royal Bride, were conducted to their Apartments amidst the Acclamations of the People. The whole Town was magnificently illuminated at Night; and, notwithstanding the prodigious Crowd, not the least Disorder or Accident happened. This Evening their Highnesses make their Appearance, for the first Time, at the Franch Theatre; and on Thursday next the Prince of Orange will give a Ball and Supper at the Old Court, with which the publick Festival will conclude.

Dublin, November 7.

Last Wednesday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Birmingham Tower: At Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant: After which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William: The Regiments on Dublin Duty lined the Statue on each Side: And after his Excellency's Return to the Castle, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery, in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, were fired three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green: And the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy. And the following Day being the Anniversary of the horrid Gunpowder Plot; the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Navy-Office, November 9, 1767.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half-Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January to the 30th of June, 1767, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-Street, on Monday and Tuesday the 23d and 24th Instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, viz. To Captains and their Attorneys, and other Officers appearing themselves, on the Monday; and to Attorneys of Lieutenants, Masters and Surgeons, on the Tuesday, (after which the Lists will be recalled once a Month) that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay; but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Navy-Office, November 10, 1767.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Tuesday the 8th of next Month, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, they will be ready to treat with such Person or Persons that are willing to supply His Majesty's Navy with the following Particulars, or any of them on standing Contracts, that they may attend with their Proposals at that Time, viz.

Seamens Beds,
Hummaces,
Slop Cloaths,
Brewer Colours.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That an anonymous threatening Letter has been lately sent to John Shorter, a Dyer in the Town of Whitney in the County of Oxford, containing the Words, Letters, and Figures following, viz.

"Sirs,

"I hope that will be so good in a week or two's time to oblige the Bakers to make the Bread according as the Price of Wheat is As they do at Oxford, Abingdon, and many other Places. And do not suffer such damned wheefing fat gutted Rogues to Starve the Poor by such Hellish Ways on purpose that they may follow hunting horseracing &c and to maintain their families in Pride and extravagance. therefore you Bailliffs of Witney follow the Orders that are Writing above or in a short time I and thirty more of my true Companions will do our best endeavour to destroy all such Vermin as you are, likewise your Houses ricks or goods on the rack."

"we are 31. that's just the game.

"and surely will perform the same"

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said anonymous threatening Letter, and in Sending the same to the said John Shorter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Bailiffs of the said Town of Whitney, do hereby promise a Reward of Ten Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by them upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

John Shorter.

Whitehall, October 31, 1767.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a threatening and incendiary Writing was publicly affixed in the Town of St. Heliers in the Island of Jersey, containing the following Words.

"This is to give Notice to all Owners and Commanders of Vessels trading from Jersey that whoever shall Directly or Indirectly presume to take any Cattle or other Provision on board for exportation, that their Vessels will be Burnt, sunk, Blown up, or otherwise destroyed, without distinction and themselves deemed as Canibals, and treated as such

"Also to give Notice to that black Dog Gilbert that he has more enemies then the number of Cows he has sent away, and he is advised not to make so many Country tripp's for some of his friends will Present him with an ounce of Lead, which will soon Convert him into Worms Meat"

"Prenez Garde a Vous Diable —

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said threatening and incendiary Paper, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Paper) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: And also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Person making such Discovery; to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
